If you want to help but are not available on November 12th you may want to consider helping us out with a cash donation for the raffle as that bucket was overflowing with tickets last year. The quilts are always an appreciated item, along with lawn furniture, gift cards, and the kid items were very popular among the children last year. Please consider sharing your talent with us in our raffle this year. A list of raffle items will be posted soon and advance tickets will be sold in several weeks.
