Stewardship Message— “Who are you Following?”

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ez 17: 22-24 / 2 Cor 5: 6-10 / Mk 4: 26-34

Acts of stewardship are not unlike the seeds scattered in today's reading from Mark. The farmer scattered seeds and left them to sprout and grow until the time of harvest. Similarly, when we give of ourselves, we allow God to take those "seeds" and cultivate them into a most abundant harvest! In both cases, the process is hidden and mysterious. It is not for us to understand, but it is for us to willingly participate. Additionally, the parable of the mustard seed reminds us that God can take even the smallest acts and turn them into something marvelous. Therefore, be watchful and aware for those opportunities to cooperate with God's plan. Pray that God will reveal them to you!
