Stewardship Message—

“Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

1 Kgs 19:16B, 19-21Gal 5:1, 13-18 Lk 9:51-62

Today's readings offer an important look at what it means to be a disciple and steward. It is clear that discipleship involves leaving behind a particular way of life and stepping with faith into the unknown. We see Elisha agree to accompany Elijah, but only after saying goodbye to his family. And wouldn't we want to do the same?? Similarly, when Jesus approached the disciples, one of them said, “let me go first and bury my father,” and another said, “but first let me say farewell to my family at home.” In baptism, we have all been called into discipleship. So what is your “but first” that is keeping you from being FULLY ALIVE as a disciple? What are you holding on to? Jesus says we are not to look to what was left behind. Being a disciple of Jesus gives us a new identity — one that is full of promise and adventure. It requires us to look forward and follow Him faithfully. Let us enthusiastically embrace this new identity in Jesus Christ.

CATHOLIC DOCTRINAL SECTION

Religions disagree precisely over this belief in Jesus the Christ. He is true God and true Man, conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. The Word made flesh, the Son of God, is the only Savior of the world (Catechism of the Catholic Church 679) and the only Mediator between God and men (CCC 846). Therefore, the first letter of John refers to one who denies His divinity as an antichrist (1 John 2:22), since Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is from eternity one in being with God, His Father (CCC 663). We are to resist the relapse into ancient heresies with clear resolve, which saw in Jesus Christ only a good person, brother and friend, prophet and moralist. He is first and foremost the Word that was with God and is God, the Son of the Father, Who assumed our human nature to redeem us and Who will come to judge the living and the dead. Him alone, we worship in unity with the Father and the Holy Spirit as the Only and True God (CCC 691). ~ Gerhard Cardinal Müller
