Stewardship Message—

“Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

Is 66:10-14c, Gal 6:14-18, Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

Jesus appointed seventy-two “others” (aside from the Twelve) to go ahead of Him to the places he intended to visit, for the “harvest is abundant but the laborers are few...” Who are these “others” He has sent forth? Are they qualified to do this work?? Of course they are!! Like you and I, they are missionary disciples, commissioned to take part in Jesus’ ministry. It doesn’t require special training — it simply requires having faith that God will give us what we need in order to complete the work. Notice Jesus tells the seventy-two to “carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals.” Instead, they (and we!) are to rely on God to lead and provide. Like the seventy-two, we have been “sent,” be it in our work places or in our social circles. We have all been tasked with living and sharing the Gospel in preparation for the abundant harvest!!

CATHOLIC DOCTRINAL SECTION

Jesus Christ founded the Church as a visible sign and instrument of salvation realized in the Catholic Church (816). He gave His Church, which "emerged from the side of the Christ who died on the Cross" (766), a sacramental constitution that will remain until the Kingdom is fully achieved (CCC 765). Christ, the Head, and the faithful as members of the body, are a mystical person (CCC 795), which is why the Church is sacred, for the one Mediator has designed and sustained its visible structure (CCC 771). Through it the redemptive work of Christ becomes present in time and space via the celebration of the Holy Sacraments, especially in the Eucharistic Sacrifice, the Holy Mass (CCC 1330).
~ Gerhard Cardinal Müller

It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. Know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in our parish. A heartfelt THANK YOU to all who participated in our annual Dessert of the Month raffle.
