Stewardship Message—

“Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kings 5:14-17

2 Tim 2:8-13

Lk 17:11-19

Faith becomes a prevalent theme again in this week's readings. Take a moment to consider what the word faith really means. Most of us understand it to mean trust or assurance, but it also means devotion and loyalty. In the case of the ten lepers in today's gospel, they all trusted that Jesus could heal them, which is a wonderful thing. But nine of them were only physically healed. Only one — a Samaritan — came back to give thanks. Only one showed devotion and loyalty, seeking spiritual healing and relationship with God. Only one was saved. As stewards, we have been entrusted — empowered! — with many gifts, including faith. We must remember to live in gratitude, offering thanks and allowing the Holy Spirit to draw us into deeper relationship with the Lord!

DOCTRINAL SECTION

"God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. For he has created all things that they might exist ... God created man for incorruption, and made him in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his party experience it" (Wis 1:13-14; 2:23-24).

The Gospel of life, proclaimed in the beginning when man was created in the image of God for a destiny of full and perfect life (cf. Gen 2:7; Wis 9:2-3), is contradicted by the painful experience of death which enters the world and casts its shadow of meaninglessness over man's entire existence. Death came into the world as a result of the devil's envy (cf. Gen 3:1,4-5) and the sin of our first parents (cf. Gen 2:17, 3:17-19). And death entered it in a violent way, through the killing of Abel by his brother Cain: "And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel, and killed him" (Gen 4:8).
