Stewardship Message—

“Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Mc 7:1-2, 9-14 / 2 Thes 2:16-3:5 / Lk 20: 27-38

Discipleship can be hard work. We do our best to cooperate with God’s will for our lives, but often we simply fall short. In his second letter to the Thessalonians, Paul acknowledges the good work the people of that community are doing. He knows that they — like us — suffer from self-doubt. In an act of kindness, he prays that our Lord Jesus Christ would encourage their hearts and “strengthen them in every good deed and word.” Often we get bogged down by what we see as our failures, and we forget that we have been empowered by the Holy Spirit to do God’s work. We are too self-reliant and we lack proper faith in the God who called us to our missions, and we tend to overlook the good that God has accomplished through us. Like Paul, we must turn to God and pray that He will give us the joy and endurance to continue as Missionary Disciples.

ST. MARY SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

St. Mary Catholic Middle School Youth Group will meet on Tuesday, November 19th at 3:45 in Mrs. Henning’s Classroom. Bring a snack and ideas to the meeting and prepare to have a good time!

There will be a Pure and Simple parent presentation on Thursday, November 21st at 7:00 PM in the school gym. All parents are invited to this event that follows our monthly PTO meeting. PTO will provide soup and chili at this meeting and presentation. Come at 6:30 and enjoy some fellowship and education.

There will be no school the week of November 25th-29th. Staff will be at the Regan Institute for religion training and students will enjoy a week-long Thanksgiving Break. Happy Thanksgiving!

DOCTRINAL SECTION

By virtue of the will of Christ and the unchangeable Tradition of the Church, the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist may not be given to those who are in a public state of objectively grave sin, and sacramental absolution may not be given to those who express their unwillingness to conform to Divine law, even if their unwillingness pertains only to a single grave matter (see Council of Trent, sess. 14, c. 4; Pope John Paul II, Message to the Major Penitentiary Cardinal William W. Baum, on March 22, 1996). According to the constant Tradition of the Church, the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist may not be given to those who deny any truth of the Catholic faith by formally professing their adherence to a heretical or to an officially schismatic Christian community (see Code of Canon Law 1983, can. 915; 1364). The law by which priests are bound to observe perfect continence in celibacy stems from the example of Jesus Christ and belongs to immemorial and apostolic tradition according to the constant witness of the Fathers of the Church and of the Roman Pontiffs. For this reason, this law should not be abolished in the Roman Church through the innovation of an optional priestly celibacy, either at the regional or the universal level. The perennial valid witness of the Church states that the law of priestly continence “does not command new precepts; these precepts should be observed, because they have been neglected on the part of some through ignorance and sloth. These precepts, nevertheless, go back to the apostles and were established by the Fathers, as it is written, ‘Stand firm, then, brothers and keep the traditions that we taught you, whether by word of mouth or by letter’ (2 Thess. 2:15). There are in fact many who, ignoring the statutes of our forefathers, have violated the chastity of the Church by their presumption and have followed the will of the people, not fearing the judgment of God” (Pope Siricius, Decretal Cum in unum in the year 386).

~Raymond Cardinal Burke

The volunteers from The Lord's Pantry would like to wish everyone a very Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving. Your support this year has been amazing! How wonderful that our churches support such a needed community service. Happy Thanksgiving! Thank you for giving.

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we find that God is a God of the living, and this is indeed the core of our hope. Jesus has risen and is with us, therefore, at no time should we be without hope for the future. When you give to your St. Vincent de Paul Society, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing. Consider joining us as we assist the poor of Harvey County. Our bi-monthly meetings begin at 7:00 p.m.. The first Monday of every month the meeting is at Our Lady of Guadalupe and the third Thursday meetings are at St. Mary's.

St. Mary Cemetery Volunteers 2019

On behalf of the St. Mary Cemetery Board, we thank all St. Mary's parish members, Our Lady of Guadalupe parish members, and the Knights of Columbus members who have so generously given their Time, Talent, and Treasure in the upkeep of our Cemetery. We are truly blessed to have great and generous volunteers.

Thank You,
Carrol C. Langenhorst
St. Mary Cemetery Board Chairman

COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS SUPPORT GROUP

If you or someone you know has lost a child, there is a support group in Newton. The Compassionate Friends meets the second Monday of every month at 7:30pm at the Nazarene Church located at 1000 N. Main. If you have questions, please call Stacy Arellano at 316-842-3799, or Jim at 288-5549. There is help, and you can feel better.

Fr. Kapaun library books checked out for over two months need to be returned to the church office. Hours are: Monday through Thursday from 9am—4:30pm, and Fridays from 9-12:30pm. Thank you!
