—Father Bergkamp

Dear Friends,

Thank you for the amazing celebration of my 70 years as a Sister in the Congregation of St. Joseph. Our celebration was so meaningful and exciting.

Thank you, Father, for the beautiful Mass and homily. Thank you Mrs. Littlejohn and the choir for the beautiful singing and music. I appreciate all the time, planning, and hard work that was required from everyone involved to accomplish such an awesome celebration. The food, cake and decorations were wonderful!

Thank you, Mr. Bargdill, for your inspiring words. Thank you, everyone for your presence with us. Thank you for your prayers, Masses, gifts, cards and all of your uplifting and inspiring words.

Thank you for taking so many pictures. I will never forget how you gave me such a magnificent celebration for my 70th year as a Sister of St. Joseph. Everything was just perfect. I forever thank you my Forever Friends.

*God Bless You.
Sister Rosemary*

St. Vincent de Paul Reflection

Learning to bear the beams of God's love, as they shine through the personality of the living Christ, is the work of our lives. His experience of suffering and dying on the Cross is there to remind us that, for one who lives in a world that is enveloped by the clouds and fog of sin, the learning process will at times be a painful one. We are called to bear the beams of God's love in our personal lives. The events of our lives, so inscrutable, so perplexing, so painful at times, are slowly strengthening us, if we could but see them with the eyes of faith, to look steadily one day at the open face of God, Who is a consuming fire of love. We are also called to refract the beams of God's love for the poor. We are called, not to stand immobile before the mystery of suffering that we find in so many poor, hungry, lonely, homeless, wandering people, but to break down for them through our service of them, the strong light of God's love so that they, too, can learn to bear the beams of God's love."
