ST. MARY SCHOOL NEWS

You are invited! During the last couple of years, we have had to do many things to keep things going. One of those things was to reduce the number of days students went to Mass to accommodate social distancing. SMCS is back to all school Mass every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday that school is in session. Please, come and enjoy daily Mass at your convenience with our St. Mary students, faculty and staff. Typically, Fr. Bergkamp is celebrant on Wednesdays and Fridays, and Fr. Jorge is celebrant on Thursdays. Hope to see you there!

Now hiring for positions at St. Mary Catholic School: Full time Harvey County Co-op Special Education Para. Please contact the school at 316-282-1974 for more information.

Our 1st Grade SMCS students are on a mission! Our 1st graders are trying their hardest to collect as many pop tabs as they can through this year to help raise funds for Ronald McDonald House. Please collect pop tabs and send them to the St. Mary Catholic School front office as you are able. Your help would be much appreciated for this important cause.

Your brother in Christ,
Joshua Bargdill, Principal

STEWARDSHIP PACKETS

Please stop by the table in the vestibule to pick up your stewardship packet for the 2023 year. Fr. Bergkamp would like the forms to be filled out and returned as soon as possible and returned to the church office. You may also drop your completed packet in the box in the back of church. Thank you for taking the time to complete the stewardship and tithe forms.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MEMORIAL MASS

The Knights of Columbus Annual Memorial Mass will be held Saturday morning, November 19th at 9am at St. Mary's Church. Our council/assembly will remember and honor our members who have passed away this year. All Knights and their families, parishioners and their families are invited and encouraged to attend this special Mass.

Something That Always Stuck With Me

As we continue through the month of November, I wish to point out that this month is devoted to the deceased, the “Month of the Dead.” Whether it’s the Saints or All Souls who have departed this world, we’re reminded that our true end (goal) is Heaven.

During this month of the dead, there is a heightened awareness of the need to pray for the souls of the deceased, especially our loved ones and those who have no one to pray for them. A great custom, and one my family partook in when I was growing up, is to visit a cemetery and pray for the dead. Some point during the month of November, we would visit two different cemeteries where our relatives are buried and pray a Rosary at both places. My siblings and I would take turns leading the decades of the Rosary.

I was not an overly pious child, so I didn’t particularly look forward to this; but witnessing the example of my parents’ dedication to this custom demonstrated to me its importance. And though it felt a little somber, I did enjoy the opportunity to connect in a way with my deceased grandparents as we stood next to their graves and prayed for their eternal salvation. I still partake in this custom, visiting the nearest cemetery and praying for my relatives, deceased parishioners, and brother priests who have died.

I encourage all of you to make a family visit to a cemetery, and together pray for your loved ones. It’s a great way to honor your family members and to assist them with your prayers. It will also be very formative for your children, showing them the importance of prayer while demonstrating the reality of the Communion of Saints, that we’re united to our loved ones even in death.

In Christ,
Fr. Bergkamp

St. Vincent de Paul Reflection

We are pilgrims on the way to heaven. Jesus is our way. We are following the right way if Jesus Christ can at all times share our thoughts, our words, our actions.

St. Vincent often proposed to people as a program for their lives the simple question: “What would Jesus Christ do, if He were in my place now?”

25th Wedding Anniversary Steve & Terri Bockhaus

All are invited to a reception honoring Steve & Terri Bockhaus on Saturday, November 26th after 5:30 Mass in the school gym.

LOVING THROUGH LOSS COUPLES' WORKSHOP

January 21st; 9am - 5pm | Red Bird Ministries

Red Bird Ministries is a non-profit, pro-life, and pro-family, Catholic grief support ministry serving individuals and couples who have experienced the loss of a child from pregnancy through adulthood.

An organization that systematically guides individuals and couples through the complexity and trauma that happens with a loss of a child. This workshop helps couples understand how the trauma of child loss affects the family dynamic, while teaching them how to love each other through the complexity of child loss. $50 per couple - see www.slcwchita.org for more details
