Stewardship Message - Oct. 13, 2013

"What Gifts Do I Share?"

In the times of Jesus and before, contracting the disease of leprosy brought banishment from society. Namaan came down from Syria to seek Elisha, a prophet of the Most High, to ask for a cure. His cure made him realize that the God of Elisha was truly the Lord. When Jesus cured the ten lepers, only the foreigner, a Samaritan, returned to Him to offer thanks. He, too, realized that he was in the presence of God. There is no race or nation that has an exclusive hold on the mercy and benevolence of God. He desires to bring all peoples to the kingdom of heaven. May we reach out to the children of God to show them the path to the Kingdom.
