Stewardship Message-April 5, 2015

"The Joy of the Gospel: Faith Working Through Love"

Easter Sunday

You will appear with him in glory! Today we recall with awe and wonder that the Lord Jesus was raised from the dead. The all-powerful God allowed his Son to be put to death on earth so that we could see beyond the power of death. God's mercy is for all mankind and Jesus commissions his disciples to spread the Good News. Our search for truth and for peace leads us ever closer to Christ, who offers life in the kingdom. As the Father's love surrounds us, we reach out with open arms to share our faith and happiness with our neighbor. May the glory of the resurrection enflame our faith and our desire for God's kingdom.

Carrying on the Faith

Dear Parishioners:

As we officially close this campaign, we are very excited and happy to report the loan for this capital campaign has been retired.

It was through everyone's hard work, dedication, and love of children, under the uplifting spirit and guidance of our Heavenly Father, we were able to accomplish such a major undertaking in such a short period of time.

When we first began, we were advised this project was out of reach, or pushing the limits for our Catholic family. Not only were we able to reach our goal, we were blessed with achieving it in less time. With prayers, gifts arrived from, what seemed, out of nowhere. With prayers, many were able to continue giving throughout the economic downturn. With prayers, we were able to provide. Through Christ, much is possible.

May God bless you,

Phil & Paula Blann

If you still have a balance due just use the blue envelopes and it will be credited to your balance. Thanks
