Stewardship Message-Aug. 16, 2015

"The Joy of the Gospel: Faith Working Through Love" Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Whoever eats this bread will live forever! Jesus came as a priest, a prophet and a king. As a priest he offered the sacrifice of himself to atone for our sin and open the gates of heaven. As a prophet he taught his followers about the Kingdom of God and how one must live to enter this Kingdom. As a king he fights for us against the power of Satan and provides for our needs. He gives us his flesh as food to nourish and strengthen us for our journey to the Kingdom. With faith we accept Christ as our shepherd and follow him with love. May the true food of Jesus' body and blood sustain us in our sojourn on earth.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Last week we began looking at the spiritual side of being a Vincentian. We touched on the spiritual direction that our Spiritual Advisor provides through the reflections shared at each of our meetings. These reflections help us deepen our insights, open our hearts and minds to the working of the Holy Spirit and provide fuel for our work. One way we demonstrate our reception of the Spirit is in our praying at each of the home visits we go on. Each Vincentian who participates in this ministry has developed a personal prayer of both honor to God and appeal to Jesus to be present with us during the visit. We share this prayer with our guests who have invited us into their homes. Many of us were not comfortable with public praying but have found the strength to do so and the enrichment that comes from doing so. One more reason to consider this ministry in your life.
