Stewardship Message-Jan. 17, 2016

"Once One Chooses to be a Disciple of Christ...
 Stewardship is not an Option"
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

For Zion's sake I will not be silent! During Jesus' public ministry he went about proclaiming the Good News that the Kingdom of God has come. We, as his disciples, make a commitment to follow his teaching and proclaim the Kingdom of God. Isaiah's words inspire us to boldly proclaim God's love and to unflinchingly follow our Savior. St. Paul encourages us, knowing that the Lord instills in each of us a gift that is key to living our discipleship. At the wedding in Cana, we see Mary, the first Disciple, directing and forming us with her words, "Do whatever he tells you." May we listen to the Teacher and contemplate his Love.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings teaches us how the Spirit gifts us all in unique ways. Vincentians come to appreciate this both within our own Conference and within our guests. Every Vincentian brings unique and special talents to our ministry and every guest shows us their unique gifts from the Holy Spirit especially in the face of their poverty and misery. Seeing this uniqueness in each of our guests is just one of the special experiences you can have as a Vincentian.

We have now concluded our first quarter for fiscal 2015-2016 and have made 46 home visits and dispensing nearly $6000. This includes over $2600 in rent, $2300 in utilities an over $900 in food, shelter, travel and medical assistance. We also continue to visit the incarcerated weekly and have begun our shut in visitations. We could not have done this without your interest and generosity. God Bless You.
